

Parish of Newry

Sunday 14 August 2016
Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Hindu scriptures (sutras) begin with the word 'Athato', 'Now'. The Brahmasutra begins 'Athato Brahma jigyaasa': 'Now the enquiry into God'. Before Vatican II the Latin liturgy prefixed the words 'In illo tempore' ('At that time') to every gospel reading. This was quite gratuitous, for it does not occur in the gospel passages. We know the importance of the historical events in the Christian faith, but liturgy is not history; it is a re-enactment of those events in the present, the Now. It was a bad approach (and it was also bad Latin).

The past has great attractions. It has all happened already, and so it is unlikely to disturb us. It is when we are most lazy and self-satisfied that we are most conservative. Everyone is a conservative for an hour or two after dinner.

It is strange that in most parts of the world the Christian faith (in mainline Churches at least) has come to stand for everything that is safe and conservative. As Philip Brooks wrote, "The religion of Jesus has so long been identified with conservatism...that it is startling sometimes to remember that all the conservatives of his own times were against him; that it was the young, free, restless, sanguine, progressive part of the people who flocked to him."

It may be for the same reason that people have been flocking out of the Church. It has had no fire in its belly, no power of prophecy, because it was more interested in conserving the past than in engaging with the world around it. In the past the Church failed to be prophetic about the abolition of slavery and torture and the persecution of Jews, and about democracy and religious freedom...

One reason, it may be, why there is such a profound lack of prophecy is that we tend to think of faith as something one 'has', a possession. If you are in secure possession of it you are safe; then all you have to do is be careful not to lose it. There are all sorts of influences out there that could make you lose your faith, so you have to avoid them at all costs. But faith is not something one has; it something one does. "I have come to bring fire on earth." What is fire? Is it just some 'thing' lying there safely, needing to be protected on all sides? No, it is energy, and it is not safe to have it around. If it makes you feel safe, it is not faith.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Congregation Sits

FIRST READING

A reading from the prophet Jeremiah

38:4-6. 8.10

The king's leading men spoke to the king. 'Let Jeremiah be put to death: he is unquestionably disheartening the remaining soldiers in the city, and all the people too, by talking like this. The fellow does not have the welfare of this people at heart so much as its ruin.' 'He is in your hands as you know,' King Zedekiah answered 'for the king is powerless against you.' So they took Jeremiah and threw him into the well of Prince Malchiah in the Court of the Guard, letting him down with ropes. There was no water in the well, only mud, and into mud Jeremiah sank.

Ebed-melech came out from the palace and spoke to the king.

'My lord king,' he said 'these men have done a wicked thing by treating the prophet Jeremiah like this: they have thrown him into the well where he will die.' At this the king gave Ebed-melech the Cushite the following order: 'Take three men with you from here and pull the prophet Jeremiah out of the well before he dies.'

All: The word of the Lord
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 39: 2-4.18 R v.14

(R) Lord, come to my aid!

1. I waited, I waited for the Lord and he stooped down to me;
he heard my cry. (R)
2. He drew me from the deadly pit, from the miry clay.
He set my feet upon a rock and made my footsteps firm. (R)
3. He put a new song into my mouth, praise of our God.
Many shall see and fear and shall trust in the Lord. (R)
4. As for me, wretched and poor, the Lord thinks of me.
You are my rescuer, my help,
O God, do not delay. (R)

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

12:1-4

With so many witnesses in a great cloud on every side of us, we too, then, should throw off everything that hinders us, especially the sin that clings so easily, and keep running steadily in the race we have started. Let us not lose sight of Jesus, who leads us in our faith and brings it to perfection: for the sake of the joy which was still in the future, he endured the cross, disregarding the shamefulness of it, and from now on has taken his place at the right of God's throne. Think of the way he stood such opposition from sinners and then you will not give up for want of courage. In the fight against sin, you have not yet had to keep fighting to the point of death.

All: The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

ACCLAMATION

Cf. Acts 16:14

All: Alleluia, alleluia!
Open our heart, O Lord, to accept the words of your Son.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Priest: The Lord be with you.All: And with your spirit.*Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

12:49-53

All: Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'I have come to bring fire to the earth, and how I wish it were blazing already! There is a baptism I must still receive, and how great is my distress till it is over!

'Do you suppose that I am here to bring peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. For from now on a household of five will be divided: three against two and two against three; the father divided against the son, son against father, mother against daughter, daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law, daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.'

All: The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

THE LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Offertory Procession

The gifts of bread and wine which will become the Lord's body and blood are brought to the altar.

The celebrant raises the host on the paten saying:

Priest: Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation, for through your goodness we have received the bread we offer you:
fruit of the earth and work of human hands,
it will become for us the bread of life.

All: Blessed be God for ever.

The celebrant pours wine and a little water into the chalice, saying quietly:

Priest: By the mystery of this water and wine may we come to share in the divinity of Christ who humbled himself to share in our humanity.

The celebrant then raises the chalice above the altar and says:

Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation,
for through your goodness we have received the wine we offer you:
fruit of the vine and work of human hands,
it will become our spiritual drink.

All: Blessed be God for ever.

Bowing, the celebrant says quietly:

Priest: With humble spirit and contrite heart may we be accepted by you, O Lord, and may our sacrifice in your sight this day be pleasing to you, Lord God.

Then the celebrant washes his hands, saying quietly:

Wash me, O Lord, from my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.

Pray, brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, almighty Father.

All: May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Priest: Receive our oblation, O Lord, by which is brought about a glorious exchange, that, by offering what you have given,
we may merit to receive your very self.
Through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER II

Priest: The Lord be with you.

All: And with your spirit.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them up to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right and just.

PREFACE (III in Ordinary Time)

Priest: It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks,
Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God,

For we know it belongs to your boundless glory, that you came to the aid of mortal beings with your divinity and even fashioned for us a remedy out of mortality itself, that the cause of our downfall might become the means of our salvation, through Christ our Lord.

Through him the host of Angels adores your majesty and rejoices in your presence for ever.
May our voices, we pray, join with theirs in one chorus of exultant praise, as we acclaim:

ACCLAMATION

All: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Congregation kneels

Priest: You are indeed Holy, O Lord, the fount of all holiness.

Make holy, therefore, these gifts, we pray, by sending down your Spirit upon them like the dewfall, so that they may become for us the Body and + Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ.

At the time he was betrayed and entered willingly into his Passion, he took bread and, giving thanks, broke it,
and gave it to his disciples, saying:

TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU, AND EAT OF IT,
FOR THIS IS MY BODY
WHICH WILL BE GIVEN UP FOR YOU.

In a similar way, when supper was ended, he took the chalice
and, once more giving thanks, he gave it to his disciples, saying:

TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU, AND DRINK FROM IT,
FOR THIS IS THE CHALICE OF MY BLOOD,
THE BLOOD OF THE NEW AND ETERNAL COVENANT, WHICH WILL BE POURED OUT FOR YOU AND FOR MANY FOR THE FORGIVENESS OF SINS.

DO THIS IN MEMORY OF ME.

Priest: The mystery of faith.

All: We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

Priest: Therefore, as we celebrate the memorial of his Death and Resurrection, we offer you, Lord, the Bread of life and the Chalice of salvation, giving thanks that you have held us worthy to be in your presence and minister to you.

Humbly we pray that, partaking of the Body and Blood of Christ, we may be gathered into one by the Holy Spirit.

Remember, Lord, your Church, spread throughout the world,
and bring her to the fullness of charity, together with Francis our Pope and N our Bishop and all the clergy.

Remember also our brothers and sisters who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection, and all who have died in your mercy:
welcome them into the light of your face.
Have mercy on us all, we pray, that with the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, with blessed Joseph, her spouse, with the blessed Apostles, and all the Saints who have pleased you throughout the ages, we may merit to be coheirs to eternal life, and may praise and glorify you through your Son, Jesus Christ.

Priest: Through him, and with him, and in him, O God, almighty Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honour is yours, for ever and ever.

All: Amen.

but deliver us from evil.

Message from the Administrator

St. Mary's Cemetery requires attention before the reopening of the Church in a few weeks time. The weather this summer recently has prevented the care that was needed to keep the Cemetery neat and tidy.

In preparation for the reopening of the Church the assistance of a number of volunteers to complete this work would be appreciated. As the area of the Cemetery is so vast a group of volunteers to help with this work regularly would be necessary. If you are able to take part in the initial 'Clean up Exercise', please contact the Parish Office, leaving your contact details so that we can organise a time when people can get involved and begin this work.

Parishioners are still putting household waste, used footwear and clothes in the bins in the graveyard. We appeal to those who are doing this to refrain from doing so as the bins are not there for that purpose.

NOTICE FROM BISHOP JOHN MCAREAVEY

Across the Diocese of Dromore, people will be aware of a reduction in the number of priests available to serve in the parishes of the Diocese. In 2005 there were 41 priests serving in parishes; today there are 23 diocesan priests, supported by 3 Polish priests and 3 Permanent Deacons. It is now essential to review the allocation of priests in the parishes of the diocese. Beginning in September, a process of consultation will be carried out, involving clergy and parishioners. You will be kept informed about this process, as it evolves.

Planning Application for Big Screen

Newry Mourne and Down District Council has just made us aware that they are applying for planning permission to retain the big screen in its current position in Hill Street blocking the view of the Cathedral, a Grade A Listed Building. We are deeply grateful to those parishioners that signed the objection request before. If you have not signed an objection request and would like to do so, call into the parish office and do so. It is imperative that the screen is relocated in a position that is not causing obstruction to this beautiful Cathedral building. We appeal for your support in this matter and any influence you can bring to the planners so that planning is refused.

Newry Parish Feedback

We welcome your comments on the Parish and its provision, so we are introducing a written feedback system, which will be piloted in the Cathedral over the summer months. You will find the feedback / volunteer cards and a collection box at the back of the Cathedral beside the picture of Pope Francis. We encourage you to take a card, think about the life of the parish and what it provides for the parishioners and give your thoughts, suggestions and changes that you would like to see take place. As always, more volunteers / helpers are required, so be aware that your assistance is very welcome. Your talents and generosity will assist in making Newry Parish a more vibrant community.

On Sunday 28th August 2016 a commemorative field trip to the grave in Desertcreat, Co. Tyrone of Bishop Patrick Donnelly, formerly Bishop of Dromore, the 300th anniversary of whose death occurs this year. Often referred to as "the Bard of Armagh", on account of his travelling around great areas of this land disguised during the Penal Era, Bishop Donnelly was a heroic priest who carried out his Episcopal and priestly duties in the face of constant persecution. The field trip (a lecture, discussion & song) will be led by Tom Keane of Lislea and will begin in Desertcreat Church of Ireland graveyard at 3.00pm. Bishop Donnelly's brother, Bishop Terence Donnelly, formerly Bishop of Derry, lies in the same grave in this, their native place.
