The Second Sunday after The Nativity

A circle has no beginning. That is because it is not a real thing. Circular things are real—such as wheels and coins and clock-faces—but a circle is a mathematical concept, not a thing. Nor does a circle have an end; it is going nowhere; it has no story to tell.

Both the Old and the New Testaments begin with the words “In the beginning.” That gives notice that we are about to hear a story. “In the beginning was the Word.” Today’s gospel passage is the opening of the New Testament. The Greek word logos (‘word’ in English) is of immense significance, more than is revealed by the English word. To begin: ‘word’ is ambiguous. It can mean a written or a spoken word. French is more precise: in the beginning, it says, was la parole, the spoken word. The story is not going to be about old texts and lexicons and dictionaries, it is going to be story of Someone breaking the eternal silence, Someone speaking to us. More still: logos has a range of meanings that no modern translation captures. Besides word, it also means inner principle, meaning, harmony....

In the beginning was the Meaning... and the Meaning became flesh and lived among us. In the beginning was the Harmony.... To dwell with these words is to allow the Gospel to go deeper in us than all our practised words and thoughts.

Many people today experience overwhelming dread when they look at how our world is faring in the hands of powerful leaders. The first victim is the truth. It would be unusual but not be far-fetched to translate logos also as truth – particularly in John’s gospel, where Jesus declares, “I am the way, the truth, and the life” (Jn 14:6). To lie, especially to lie systematically, is to shatter the original Meaning, as far as one is capable. It is like turning the signposts around: everyone who pays attention is liable to go astray.

It is to destroy all harmony, to demolish human society, as far as we are able. In principle it is to turn the universe into a heap of unrelated fragments, to become a “destroyer of worlds.”

It was in this tormented world that the Logos became flesh. It is here that he still lives among us. It is here that he is mocked and tortured to death in millions of innocent victims, who are his Body. From his first moment among us, killers were on his trail. That was the first Christmas. There has never been a peaceful one, unless you except the Christmas Truce of 1914, where soldiers played football together before going back, next day, to slaughtering one another.

Is there any hope? But there has to be. To give up hope is the same as to give up faith and love – for these are aspects of one another. No, we were not idle fantasists when we wished one another a Happy Christmas or A Peaceful Christmas last week. We were expressing the Christian belief expressed in today’s gospel passage: “The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it.”

The conflict is not a clash of armies. That is now how God enters our world. The Child born today is God’s new deed: the newest, the youngest, the most recent. But this is not announced with a roll of drums, nor even in the excited voices of advertisers; it is a silent deed. He is the Word made flesh, but he lies there as helpless to speak as any infant. Only in silence can this silent Word be heard, this Logos welcomed in our being. The new blade of grass does not make a scene or a noise; nor does the Word made flesh.

INTRODUCTORY RITES

*Congregation standsEntrance Hymn or Entrance Antiphon*Wis 18:14-15

All: When a profound silence covered all things and night was in the middle of its course, your all-powerful Word, O Lord, bounded from heaven's royal throne.

GREETING

Priest: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen

Priest: The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

PENITENTIAL ACT

Priest: Brothers and sisters, let us acknowledge our sins, and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.

Priest: Lord Jesus, you raise us to new life:
Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Priest: Lord Jesus, you forgive us our sins:
Christ, have mercy. Christ, have mercy.

Priest: Lord Jesus, you feed us with your body and blood:
Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Priest: May almighty God have mercy on us,
forgive us our sins,
and bring us to everlasting life.

Amen

GLORIA

All: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE COLLECT

Priest: Let us pray.

Pause for silent prayer

Priest: Almighty ever-living God, splendour of faithful souls, graciously be pleased to fill the world with your glory, and show yourself to all peoples by the radiance of your light.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All: Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Congregation Sits

FIRST READING

A reading from the book of Ecclesiasticus

24:1-2. 8-12

Wisdom speaks her own praises,
in the midst of her people she glories in herself.
She opens her mouth in the assembly of the Most High,
she glories in herself in the presence of the Mighty One;

'Then the creator of all things instructed me,
and he who created me fixed a place for my tent.
He said, "Pitch your tent in Jacob,
make Israel your inheritance."
From eternity, in the beginning, he created me,
and for eternity I shall remain.
I ministered before him in the holy tabernacle,
and thus was I established on Zion.
In the beloved city he has given me rest,
and in Jerusalem I wield my authority.
I have taken root in a privileged people in the Lord's property, in his inheritance.'

The word of the Lord

All: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 147:12-15. 19-20. R Jn 1:14

(R) The Word was made flesh, and he lived among us.

1. O praise the Lord, Jerusalem!
Zion, praise your God!
He has strengthened the bars of your gates,
he has blessed the children within you. (R)
2. He established peace on your borders, he feeds you with finest wheat.
He sends out his word to the earth and swiftly runs his command. (R)
3. He makes his word known to Jacob, to Israel his laws and decrees.
He has not dealt thus with other nations;
He has not taught them his decrees. (R)

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians

1:3-6. 15-18

Blessed be God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all the spiritual blessings of heaven in Christ. Before the world was made, he chose us, chose us in Christ, to be holy and spotless, and to live through love in his presence, determining that we should become his adopted sons, through Jesus Christ, for his own kind purposes, to make us praise the glory of his grace, his free gift to us in the Beloved.

That will explain why I, having heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus, and the love that you show towards all the saints, have never failed to remember you in my prayers and to thank God for you. May the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, give you a spirit of wisdom and perception of what is revealed, to bring you to full knowledge of him. May he enlighten the eyes of your mind so that you can see what hope his call holds for you, what rich glories he has promised the saints will inherit.

All: The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

ACCLAMATION

Cf. 1 Tim 3:16

All: Alleluia, alleluia!
 Glory be to you, O Christ,
 proclaimed to the pagans;
 Glory be to you, O Christ,
 believed in by the world.
 Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Priest: The Lord be with you.

All: And with your spirit.

Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

1:1-18

All: Glory to you, O Lord.

In the beginning was the Word:
 the Word was with God and the Word was God.
 He was with God in the beginning.
 Through him all things came to be,
 not one thing had its being but through him.
 All that came to be had life in him
 and that life was the light of men,
 a light that shines in the dark,
 a light that darkness could not overpower.

A man came, sent by God.
 His name was John.
 He came as a witness, as a witness to speak for the light,
 so that everyone might believe through him.
 He was not the light, only a witness to speak for the light.

The Word was the true light that enlightens all men;
 and he was coming into the world.
 He was in the world that had its being through him,
 and the world did not know him.
 He came to his own domain
 and his own people did not accept him.
 But to all who did accept him
 he gave power to become children of God, to all who believe in the name of him who was born not out of human stock or urge of the flesh or will of man
 but of God himself.
 The Word was made flesh,
 he lived among us, and we saw his glory,
 the glory that is his as the only Son of the Father,
 full of grace and truth.

John appears as his witness. He proclaims:
 'This is the one of whom I said: He who comes after me ranks before me because he existed before me.'

Indeed, from his fullness we have, all of us, received – yes, grace in return for grace,
 since though the Law was given through Moses,
 grace and truth have come through Jesus Christ.
 No one has ever seen God;
 it is the only Son, who is nearest to the Father's heart,
 who has made him known.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

THE LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Offertory Procession

The gifts of bread and wine which will become the Lord's body and blood are brought to the altar.

The celebrant raises the host on the paten saying:

Priest: Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation, for through your goodness we have received the bread we offer you:
 fruit of the earth and work of human hands,
 it will become for us the bread of life.

All: Blessed be God for ever.

The celebrant pours wine and a little water into the chalice, saying quietly:

Priest: By the mystery of this water and wine may we come to share in the divinity of Christ who humbled himself to share in our humanity.

The celebrant then raises the chalice above the altar and says:

Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation, for through your goodness we have received the wine we offer you: fruit of the vine and work of human hands, it will become our spiritual drink.

All: Blessed be God for ever.

Bowing, the celebrant says quietly:

Priest: With humble spirit and contrite heart may we be accepted by you, O Lord, and may our sacrifice in your sight this day be pleasing to you, Lord God.

Then the celebrant washes his hands, saying quietly:

Wash me, O Lord, from my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.

Pray, brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

All: May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Priest: Sanctify, O Lord, the offerings we make on the Nativity of your Only Begotten Son, for by it you show us the way of truth and promise the life of the heavenly Kingdom. Through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen

EUCARISTIC PRAYER III

Priest: The Lord be with you.
All: And with your spirit.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.
All: We lift them up to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
All: It is right and just.

PREFACE (Nativity I)

Priest: It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God.

For in the mystery of the Word made flesh a new light of your glory has shone upon the eyes of our mind, so that, as we recognize in him God made visible, we may be caught up through him in love of things invisible.

And so, with Angels and Archangels, with Thrones and Dominions, and with all the hosts and Powers of heaven, we sing the hymn of your glory, as without end we acclaim:

ACCLAMATION

All: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Congregation kneels

Priest: You are indeed Holy, O Lord, and all you have created rightly gives you praise, for through your Son our Lord Jesus Christ, by the power and working of the Holy Spirit, you give life to all things and make them holy, and you never cease to gather a people to yourself, so that from the rising of the sun to its setting a pure sacrifice may be offered to your name.

Therefore, O Lord, we humbly implore you: by the same Spirit graciously make holy these gifts we have brought to you for consecration, that they may become the Body and Blood of your Son our Lord Jesus Christ, at whose command we celebrate these mysteries.

For on the night he was betrayed he himself took bread, and, giving you thanks, he said the blessing, broke the bread and gave it to his disciples, saying:

TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU, AND EAT OF IT,
FOR THIS IS MY BODY
WHICH WILL BE GIVEN UP FOR YOU.

In a similar way, when supper was ended, he took the chalice and, giving you thanks, he said the blessing, and gave the chalice to his disciples, saying:

TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU, AND DRINK FROM IT, FOR THIS IS THE CHALICE OF MY BLOOD, THE BLOOD OF THE NEW AND ETERNAL COVENANT, WHICH WILL BE POURED OUT FOR YOU AND FOR MANY FOR THE FORGIVENESS OF SINS.

DO THIS IN MEMORY OF ME.

Priest: The mystery of faith.
All: My Lord and my God

Priest: Therefore, O Lord, as we celebrate the memorial of the saving Passion of your Son, his wondrous Resurrection and Ascension into heaven, and as we look forward to his second coming, we offer you in thanksgiving this holy and living sacrifice.

Look, we pray, upon the oblation of your Church and, recognising the sacrificial Victim by whose death you willed to reconcile us to yourself, grant that we, who are nourished by the Body and Blood of your Son and filled with his Holy Spirit, may become one body, one spirit in Christ.

May he make of us an eternal offering to you, so that we may obtain an inheritance with your elect, especially with the most Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, with blessed Joseph, her spouse, with your blessed Apostles and glorious Martyrs with Saint Patrick and with all the Saints, on whose constant intercession in your presence we rely for unfailing help.

May this Sacrifice of our reconciliation, we pray, O Lord, advance the peace and salvation of all the world. Be pleased to confirm in faith and charity your pilgrim Church on earth, with your servant Leo our Pope and N our Bishop, the Order of Bishops, all the clergy, and the entire people you have gained for your own.

Listen graciously to the prayers of this family, whom you have summoned before you: in your compassion, O merciful Father, gather to yourself all your children scattered throughout the world. To our departed brothers and sisters and to all who were pleasing to you at their passing from this life, give kind admittance to your kingdom. There we hope to enjoy for ever the fullness of your glory through Christ our Lord, through whom you bestow on the world all that is good.

Priest: Through him, and with him, and in him, O God, almighty Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honour is yours, for ever and ever.

All: Amen.

Congregation stands

THE COMMUNION RITE

Priest: At the Saviour's command and formed by divine teaching, we dare to say:

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Priest: Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil, graciously grant peace in our days, that, by the help of your mercy, we may be always free from sin and safe from all distress, as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

All: For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and for ever.

Priest: Lord Jesus Christ, who said to your Apostles: Peace I leave you, my peace I give you, look not on our sins, but on the faith of your Church, and graciously grant her peace and unity in accordance with your will. Who live and reign for ever and ever.

All: Amen.

Priest: The peace of the Lord be with you always.

All: And with your spirit.

Priest: May this mingling of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ bring eternal life to us who receive it.

All: Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Congregation kneels

The celebrant says quietly:

May the receiving of your Body and Blood, Lord Jesus Christ, not bring me to judgment and condemnation, but through your loving mercy be for me protection in mind and body and a healing remedy.

INVITATION TO HOLY COMMUNION

Priest: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

All: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Priest: May the Body of Christ keep me safe for eternal life.

Priest: May the Blood of Christ keep me safe for eternal life.

COMMUNION ANTIphon

Cf. Jn 1:12

All: To all who would accept him, he gave the power to become children of God.

Purifying the chalice the celebrant says quietly:

What has passed our lips as food, O Lord, may we possess in purity of heart, that what has been given to us in time may be our healing for eternity.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Congregation kneels

Priest: Let us pray. Lord our God, we humbly ask you, that, through the working of this mystery, our offences may be cleansed and our just desires fulfilled. Through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen

THE CONCLUDING RITES

Priest: The Lord be with you.

All: And with your spirit.

Priest: May the God of infinite goodness, who by the Incarnation of his Son has driven darkness from the world and by that glorious Birth has illumined this most holy day, drive far from you the darkness of vice and illumine your hearts with the light of virtue.

All: Amen

Priest: May God, who willed that the great joy of his Son's saving Birth be announced to shepherds by the Angel, fill your minds with the gladness he gives and make you heralds of his Gospel.

All: Amen

Priest: And may God, who by the Incarnation brought together the earthly and heavenly realm, fill you with the gift of his peace and favour and make you sharers with the Church in heaven, and give you his peace.

All: Amen

Priest: And may the blessing of almighty God, the Father, and the Son, + and the Holy Spirit, come down on you and remain with you for ever.

All: Amen

Then the celebrant, with hands joined and facing the people, says:

Priest: Go forth, the Mass is ended.

All: Thanks be to God.

MESSAGE FROM THE ADMINISTRATOR

The Gospel reading from John states that the Eternal Word, through whom all that exists came to be, 'was made flesh and lived among us.' While the human mind cannot grasp the mystery of a love so great, perhaps the following story may help to give us some limited appreciation of it.

In the ancient kingdom of Siam there lived a prince who fell in love with a fair maiden, the daughter of one of the farm labourers. As heir the prince knew that, if he married her, she would become queen and this should make her happy. But he also knew that she would admire him and be grateful to him, but she would not be able to truly love him because the inequality between them would be too great. So, he decided to renounce his kingship, become a humble labourer on his father's vast estate, and offer her his love as an equal.

Gradually, he befriended the maiden and offered her his love. He went out of his way to show how much he loved her. At first, she was withdrawn and distrustful but, as the prince continued to woo her, her resistance broke down and she opened her heart to him. Once she accepted his love she began to believe in her own goodness and was able to love him in return.

This simple story is clearly a parable about the kind of love we celebrate today. The Son of God came in humility and weakness. He wanted to gain our love so that we would follow Him freely out of love and not in servitude. This, of course, involved a risk. People might not accept Him. But an extraordinary transformation took place in those who accepted His love and opened their hearts to Him: 'But to all who did accept He gave power to become children of God. When we accept God's love, we experience our own goodness and are able to love God and one another in return.'

Today, 4th January 2026 marks the end of the Holy Year, the year of hope announced by Pope Francis. For us in Newry Parish it has been a good year and was marked each month by prayer. The highlight of the year was the fact that we now have a grotto in honour of Our Lady in the Cathedral Garden in the centre of Newry City. For many people the grotto is a sanctuary of heart healing and soul rest, where time is properly regarded as the infinite thing it is. Many drop in to place their concerns and worries in the hands of Our Lady.

Archbishop Eamon Martin will celebrate the 12noon Mass in the Cathedral and formally bring this year of hope to a close. The Archbishop will commission the new altar servers, readers and members of the junior choir.

Canon Francis Brown

The next Family Mass will take place on Sunday 11th January in the Cathedral at 12noon. It will be led by St. Patrick's P.S.

Holy Hour in honour of Jesus the Divine Mercy and Our Lady this Sunday 4th January at 3.00pm in St. Catherine's Church, Dominic Street. 'Come spend an hour with the Eucharistic Lord.'
